Comprehensive	All Sections apply.
Third Party Fire and Theft	Sections 2, 3, 5, 8 and 9 apply.
Third Party Only	Sections 3, 8 and 9 apply.

SECTION 1 – Accidental Damage

We will insure your motor vehicle against loss or damage (subject to any excess detailed in the Schedule) caused by:

- (i) Accidental Damage;
- (ii) Malicious Damage and Vandalism.

Your motor vehicle's fitted accessories and spare parts are covered in the same way (including the maker's standard tool kit and the motor vehicle's safety equipment). The cover applies only if the accessories and spare parts are with the motor vehicle, kept in or on the motor vehicle and fall within the maximum amount we pay. We will pay up to £100 for loss of or damage to personal effects in or on your Motor Vehicle provided that they are lost or damaged by accident, after deduction of any excess.

At our discretion we will either:

- Pay for the repair of the damage;
- Pay you the current market value of the insured motor vehicle (the damaged vehicle will then belong to us);
- Pay you the cash value of any lost or stolen part;
- Pay you no more than the last list price of parts no longer available as new.

We or the repairer may use parts which have not been supplied by the manufacturer.

If your motor vehicle is owned by somebody else or is the subject of a hire purchase agreement we will make any cash payment to the legal owner unless the owner specifically agrees otherwise.

In the event of your motor vehicle being unusable because of accidental damage we will pay any reasonable cost to protect your motor vehicle and to move it to the nearest competent repairer.

Subject to our written consent we will also pay the reasonable cost of returning your motor vehicle to your home address in the United Kingdom after repair.

Replacement Motor Vehicle

Should the insured motor vehicle be less than 12 months old we will (subject to availability) replace it with a new motor vehicle of the same make, model and specification or nearest specification if:

- (i) the insured motor vehicle is stolen and not recovered within 30 days of being reported; or
- (ii) the estimated cost of repairing accidental damage exceeds 60% of the insured motor vehicle's list price (including motor vehicle tax and VAT) at the time of purchase.

This is subject to (for both (i) and (ii)):

- the vehicle being owned by you or your spouse or being purchased under a hire purchase agreement (insured motor vehicle's which are the subject of a contract hire or leasing agreement are not included); and

- the agreement of any interested hire purchase company; and
- you or your spouse being the first registered owner and the recorded mileage does not exceed 10,000 miles at the time of the incident.

If a suitable replacement cannot be found then, at our option, the most we will pay will be the current market value of your motor vehicle. The stolen and recovered or damaged vehicle will then belong to us.

Not covered under Section 1

- (i) In the event of your motor vehicle or accessories or spare parts being damaged beyond economical repair we will not pay more than the market value at the time of the accident or loss.
- (ii) No payment for loss or damage caused by theft or attempted theft while nobody is in your motor vehicle, unless all the doors, windows and other openings are closed and locked, the motor vehicle's keys and any other door or ignition unlocking devices such as electronic fobs or cards are removed and the vehicle's electronic or mechanical devices are set.

 - Loss of use of the insured motor vehicle or any consequential loss;
 - Loss or damage arising as a result of "road rage" or a deliberate act by you or any person driving the Insured Motor Vehicle with your permission;

We will pay up to £100 for loss of or damage to personal effects in or on your Motor Vehicle provided that they are lost or damaged by fire, theft or attempted theft, after deduction of any excess.

If the keys to your motor vehicle or lock transmitter are stolen we will pay up to £200 towards the cost of replacing the door locks and/or boot lock, ignition/steering lock, the lock transmitter and central locking interface, providing it can be established that the identity of where the vehicle is normally kept overnight is known to the person(s) in receipt of such keys or transmitters.

- Pay you the cash value of any lost or stolen part;
- Pay you no more than the last list price of parts no longer available as new.

We will cover your legal responsibility if you kill or injure someone or you damage their property, if you have an accident in your motor vehicle or any trailer, caravan or any other broken down vehicle (as allowed by law) attached to your motor vehicle or if accidentally detached during the course of a journey. The broken down vehicle, trailer or caravan must be properly secured to your motor vehicle and no cover is given for damage to the towed attachment or its contents.

If this is the only payment made then your No Claim Bonus will not be affected.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

This Document should be read in conjunction with the Certificate of Motor Insurance and the Schedule and any endorsements which apply.

- The cover provided by this insurance applies only if:
 - any person claiming protection has met all of the conditions in this document;
 - the information you gave on the statement of fact and/or proposal form and declaration is as far as you know correct and complete;
 - you understand that the premium charged is based on the information you supplied at the start of the insurance and when it is renewed.
- If you have not given complete and accurate information it could lead to your claim being denied or the insurance becoming invalidated if a claim is made which you or any person acting on your behalf knows is false, fraudulent or exaggerated, in which case no payment will be made and all cover on this insurance will end.
- You must take all reasonable steps to protect your vehicle from loss or damage, maintain it in an efficient and roadworthy condition and allow us to examine the vehicle at any reasonable time after any loss, damage or accident. You must give us full details of the incident as soon as possible. You should also give us any information and assistance that we may require. Refer in conjunction with the IMPORTANT INFORMATION Section on Page 4.
- You must act in a way that does not prejudice our interests.
- You must report any incident to us as soon as is reasonably possible. You must send any communication about a claim (including any writ or summons) to us, unanswered, and without delay and also tell us if you know of any future prosecution, coroner's inquest or fatal accident enquiry involving any person covered by this insurance.
- Any theft or attempted theft must be reported to the Police.
- Do not admit to, negotiate or refuse any claim without written permission by us.
- We are entitled to take over and conduct, defend or settle any claim and to take proceedings, at our expense and for our own benefit, to recover any payment we have made under this insurance. Such action will be taken in your name or in the name of any other person covered by this insurance and you or the person in whose name we take action must cooperate on any matter which affects this insurance.
- In the event of a disagreement over any amount due to be paid under this insurance (liability being otherwise admitted) or any other dispute to this insurance the matter will be referred to an arbitrator who we both agree to. The arbitrator must make a decision before the dispute is referred to the courts. If you normally live in the United Kingdom, the courts in that part of the UK in which you normally live will have authority. If you normally live outside the United Kingdom, only the courts of England and Wales will have authority. Nothing contained in this policy will affect your right to bring a dispute in another jurisdiction under Brussels regulation 44/2001 of 22 December 2000 and the 1988 Lugano Convention.

- You have 14 days to decide whether to proceed with the purchase of this insurance contract, from the later of the day that you took out the insurance contract or the day you receive the full terms of the insurance contract. If the policy is cancelled within this 14 day period we will charge a premium for the period of cover we have been insuring you plus an administration charge. This is subject to No Claims being reported and the return of the Certificate of Insurance.
- We or your insurance adviser may cancel this insurance by sending 7 days' notice in writing to you at your last known address (and in the case of Northern Ireland to the Department of the Environment, Northern Ireland). Subject to no claims having been made (or likely to be made) in the current period of insurance, we will refund a proportionate part of the premium. This will be less any amounts still outstanding under any arrangement you have made with your insurance adviser to pay the premium by instalments. You must return the Certificate of Motor Insurance.
- You can cancel this insurance at any time by writing to us via your insurance adviser and at the same time returning the Certificate of Motor Insurance. Subject to no claims having been made (or likely to be made) in the current period of insurance, we will work out the premium for the period we have been insuring you and refund any difference subject to an administration fee. The cancellation will take effect from the date we receive the Certificate.
- An administration fee is charged for any amendment to this insurance.
- If we are obliged to settle a claim which we would not have settled had it not been for the provisions of the Road Traffic Acts in the United Kingdom or corresponding legislation elsewhere or by reason of our participation in the Motor Insurers Bureau arrangements we will require that you, or the person who made the claim, repay all such monies to us.
- If you pay your premium by instalments and there is a default in payments we or your insurance adviser may cancel this insurance by sending you 7 days' notice of cancellation as detailed in General Condition (xi) although no refund of premium will be allowed for the unexpired portion of the insurance.

Should we deal with a claim involving the actual or constructive total loss of the insured motor vehicle any outstanding instalments will be deducted from the agreed settlement value.
- No refund of premium will be allowed as a result of a mid-term adjustment should any claim arise in the same policy period.
